Staff

Robert McDougall – Director

Rob McDougall graduated from Sydney Conservatorium with a Bachelor of Music in 2012, and has gone on to amass an impressive list of credits as a professional actor, singer and conductor. He has toured nationally with the Newcastle Jazz group Ultra Swing Lounge, and has performed as a vocal soloist in the largest venues in Australia, including Rod Laver Arena and The Sydney Cricket Ground. Rob co-conducted the DoE recent "West of the Divide" choir on tour throughout central Europe, and has conducted a number of musicals at the Sydney Seymour Centre. Rob performed the role of "Bishop of Digne" in the recent Australian national production of Les Miserables, as well as being the youngest person in the world to understudy and play the role of Javert, and continues to work professionally throughout NSW as a performer, teacher, director, and conductor.

Kellie Singh – Choreographer

Kellie Singh has been the head of TCDA for the last 10 years, and prior to that Cadence Dance Studio for 13 years. Under her leadership, TCDA has blossomed into the largest dance studio in North West NSW, with hundreds of students and many professional graduates. Kellie trained in Sydney with the Australian Teachers of Dance and danced professionally throughout Sydney before committing herself to choreography and teaching.

Brooke Gillett – Vocal

Brooke has worked at the Tamworth Regional Conservatorium of Music for over 8 years as the Early Childhood Music teacher. Brooke is an energetic and inspirational teacher for children of all ages.

Todd Power – Music

Todd has been teaching piano and accompanying at the Tamworth Regional Conservatorium of Music for over 4 years. Todd is a versatile and enthusiastic musician and accompanist.
